

Figure 2. SEER CML incidence vs. age depends on sex and race. There is a sex difference in amplitude ($P < 10^{-16}$) and a white-other race difference in the exponential aging rate (i.e. slope) ($P < 10^{-7}$); the y-axis is on a log scale. There were no sex differences in slopes.